

Tax-Exempt Cash

Quarterly Fact Sheet

As of December 31, 2025

Objective

The objective of Caval Hill's Tax-Exempt Cash Strategy is to maintain stability of principal, preserve capital and generate current income that is exempt from federal income taxes.

Process

Caval Hill's investment process for this portfolio includes the evaluation, purchase and ongoing monitoring of short-term, high-quality securities, auction rate securities, tax-exempt commercial paper and fixed rate bonds.

Portfolio Construction

Caval Hill believes that municipal securities offer the potential for attractive yields and enhanced safety of principal. We invest at least 80% of portfolio assets in high-quality short-term municipal obligations, diversified across top-tier securities, issuer types, and state allocations that are exempt from federal income taxes. Individual securities held in the portfolio will have remaining maturities of 397 days or less.

Caval Hill Tax Exempt Cash Composite (creation 3/31/2006, inception 5/1/2005)

Includes all portfolios invested in at least 80% high credit quality, short term municipal securities that are exempt from federal income taxes, have remaining maturities of 397 days or less, and are deemed to have minimal credit risk. The benchmark is the SIFMA Municipal Swap Index.

* Periods less than one year are not annualized. Net of fee returns are modeled by reducing gross monthly returns by 1/12th of the highest annual management fee in our fee schedule.

¹ The Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association Municipal Swap Index (formerly The Bond Market Association / PSA Municipal Swap Index), is a 7-day high-grade market index comprised of tax-exempt VRDOs from MMD's extensive database. The index is unmanaged. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. The above index does not reflect the fees associated with a managed account.

SEC Disclosure

Gross performance results do not reflect the deduction of investment management fees other than trading costs. Gross performance data includes the reinvestment of interest, dividends, and other earnings. The value of investments may rise or fall. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Investments are subject to risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested. Client returns will be reduced by management fees and any other expenses incurred in the management of an account. Net performance results reflect the deduction of investment management fees and trading expenses, but do not reflect the effect of other fees which may be incurred, nor do they reflect compounding which may further reduce the returns shown. Caval Hill's investment advisory fees are described in Part 2A of its Form ADV.
